

	"Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one." Deuteronomy 6:4
I. We are commanded to
	A. An overflow of Psalm 103:1-4 "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!"
	B. A steadfast John 14:15 "If you love me, you will keep my commandments."
	C. A discontent with 1 John 2:15-17 "Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him."
II. We are commanded to
	A. Our teaching creates Proverbs 22:6 "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."
	B. Our teaching demands Proverbs 13:24 "Whoever spares the rod hates his son, but he who loves him is diligent to discipline him."
	C. Our teaching prevents Deuteronomy 6:8-9 "8You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. 9You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates."
III. We are commanded to Last Thought: God's law demands When we fall short, is found in
